1. Preamble

Pursuant to Section 135 of the Companies Act, 2013 (the "Act") and the Companies (Corporate Social Responsibility Policy) Rules, 2014 (the "CSR Rules"), and on the recommendation of the Corporate Social Responsibility Committee, the Board of Directors (the "Board") of EML Consultancy Services Pvt. Ltd. (the "Company") has approved this Policy on Corporate Social Responsibility (hereinafter referred to as "CSR Policy" or "Policy").

For EML, CSR is an integral part of its corporate culture, rooted in the organization's core values. The Company is committed to making a meaningful and measurable impact on the lives of economically, physically, and socially challenged communities in India.

Objective of CSR: The Company recognizes the importance of corporate social responsibility in promoting the welfare of the society in which the Company is working. The CSR Policy shall be guided by the Company's corporate vision and the aspiration to be the Company of Choice for Customers, Shareholders, Employees and Community. The primary purpose of the Company's CSR philosophy is to make a meaningful and measurable impact in the lives of economically, physically and socially challenged communities of the Country.

2. Mission, Vision & Goal

Mission: Company carries out its CSR activities through an integrated approach of development of society by focusing on creation of sustainable livelihood, promoting education, health and skills development among the underprivileged and needy sections of the society as well as promoting computer education in schools.

Vision: 'Company shall strive to achieve an image of one of the most respectable and socially responsible corporate entity in the country'

Goal of the company – The goals of the Company include accurately identifying genuine cases of underprivileged and needy persons, help them overcome the challenges faced by them in areas of health, education, employability and continue to enlarge its canvas of CSR in terms of adding new sections of society and new areas where the Company can contribute effectively

3. Definitions

Pursuant to the Act and its rules thereof, unless the context otherwise requires, the following words, expressions, and derivations thereof shall have the meanings assigned to them as under:

- a) “Administrative overheads” Administrative overheads are the expenses incurred by the company for 'general management and administration' of CSR functions. However, the expenses which are directly incurred for the designing, implementation, monitoring, and evaluation of a particular CSR project or programme, shall not be included in the administrative overheads. Administrative overheads generally comprise of items such as employee costs, utilities, office supplies, legal expenses, etc. However, expenses which are attributed to the project implementation shall be included in project cost only.

Note: The maximum permissible limit for administrative overheads is five per cent of the total CSR expenditure of the company for the financial year.

b) “Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR)” Rule 2(1)(d) of the Companies (CSR Policy) Rules, 2014 defines CSR and the following activities are specifically excluded from being considered as eligible CSR activity:

- (i) activities undertaken in pursuance of normal course of business of the company
- (ii) (ii) activities undertaken outside India, except for training of Indian sports personnel representing any State or Union Territory at national level or India at international level;
- (iii) contribution of any amount, directly or indirectly, to any political party under section 182 of the Act;
- (iv) activities benefitting employees of the company as defined in section 2(k) of the Code on Wages, 2019;
- (v) sponsorship activities for deriving marketing benefits for products/services;
- (vi) activities for fulfilling statutory obligations under any law in force in India.

c) “CSR Committee” means the Corporate Social Responsibility Committee as constituted by the Board of the Company as referred to in Section 135 of the Act.

d) “Average Net profit” The average net profit for the purpose of determining the spending on CSR activities is to be computed in accordance with the provisions of section 198 of the Act and will also be exclusive of the items given under rule 2(1)(h) of the Companies (CSR Policy) Rules, 2014. Section 198 of the Act specifies certain additions/deletions (adjustments) to be made while calculating the net profit of a company (mainly it excludes capital payments/receipts, income tax, set-off of past losses).

Profit Before Tax (PBT) is used for computation of net profit under section 135 of the Act.

e) “Ongoing Project” Ongoing project has been defined under rule 2(1) (i) of the Companies (CSR Policy) Rules, 2014 as:

- (i) a multi-year project, stretching over more than one financial year;
- (ii) having a timeline not exceeding three years excluding the year of commencement;
- (iii) includes such project that was initially not approved as a multi-year project but whose duration has been extended beyond one year by the Board based on reasonable justification.

The project should have commenced within the financial year to be termed as ‘ongoing’. The intent is to include a project which has an identifiable commencement and completion dates. After the completion of any ongoing project, the Board of the company is free to design any other project related to operation and maintenance of such completed projects in a manner as may be deemed fit on a case-to-case basis.

Note: The term ‘year’ refers to financial year as defined in section 2(41) of the Act.

4. Annual Action Plan for CSR Activities

The CSR Committee shall formulate and recommend to the Board an annual action plan in pursuance of its CSR policy, which shall include the following, namely:

- a) The list of CSR projects or programmes that are approved to be undertaken in areas or subjects specified in Schedule VII of the Act;
- b) The manner of execution of such projects or programmes as specified in sub-rule (1) of Rule 4 of the CSR Rules;
- c) The modalities of utilisation of funds and implementation schedules for the projects or programmes;
- d) Monitoring and reporting mechanism for the projects or programmes; and
- e) Details of need and impact assessment, if any, for the projects undertaken by the Company.
- f) Other details, as may be required by the Board.
- g) Other details, as may be prescribed under the Act and CSR rules time to time.

Provided that the Board may alter such plan at any time during the financial year, as per the recommendation of its CSR Committee, based on reasonable justification to that effect.

5. CSR Expenditure

- a) The Board of the Company shall ensure that the Company spends, in every financial year, at least two per cent (2%) of the average net profits of the Company made during the three immediately preceding financial years, in pursuance of its Corporate Social Responsibility Policy.
- b) The Company shall give preference to the local area and areas around it where it operates for spending the amount earmarked for Corporate Social Responsibility activities.
- c) The Board shall ensure that the administrative overheads shall not exceed five percent of total CSR expenditure of the Company for the financial year.
- d) Any surplus amount arising out of the CSR activities & programmes shall either be ploughed back into the same project or shall be transferred to the Unspent CSR Account. Such amount shall be spent in pursuance of this policy and annual action plan of the Company; or the Company shall transfer such surplus amount to a Fund specified in Schedule VII, within a period of six months of the expiry of the financial year.
- e) In case the Company spends an amount in excess of the requirement provided under sub-section (5) of Section 135, such excess amount may be set off against the requirement to spend up to the immediate succeeding three financial years subject to the conditions that the excess amount available for set off shall not include the surplus arising out of the CSR activities, if any, in pursuance of sub-rule (2) of Rule 7 of CSR Rules and the Board of the Company shall pass a resolution to that effect.

f) The CSR amount may be spent by the Company for the creation or acquisition of a capital asset (as may be necessary to achieve the objectives of the entities for whom capital assets are being acquired) which shall be held by:

- i. a Company established under Section 8 of the Act, or a Registered Public Trust or Registered Society, having charitable objects and CSR Registration Number under sub-rule (2) of Rule 4 of CSR Rules; or
- ii. beneficiaries of the said CSR project, in the form of self-help groups, collectives, entities; or
